NEWSLETTER

Week ending 13th November

This week:

Reception Class have celebrated 'Remembrance Day' by making a poppy wreath.

Year One have been writing addition and subtraction number facts, as well as drawing Autumn leaves.

Year Two have been investigating which materials are waterproof.

Year Three have been looking at estimating answers to additions and subtractions.

Year Four have been looking at the unusual way Ted Hughes builds sentences and ideas in 'The Iron Man'. Amongst many other things have been looking at and thinking about the act of 'Remembrance.'

Year Five have been writing interesting lines for our narrative poem using metaphors, alliteration and repetition.

Year Six been looking at poetry in Guided Reading and have been painting Remembrance Day poppies onto stones.

STARS OF THE WEEK

this week are:

Miyah in Reception for independently ordering numbers 0-10 Super!

Ceanna in year 1 for excellent reading and moving up levels in her reading. Well Done!

Carlito in year 2 for trying really hard in English. Brilliant!

Jocey-Leigh in Year 3 for a super score on her PE assessment. Fantastic!

Amelia in Year 4 for settling in amazingly well into her new class/school and for already making a huge, positive difference. Lovely!

Cory in Year 5 for being so helpful in class to the teachers and his peers and for being a kind friend. Wonderful!

Matilda in Year 6 for an exceptionally well written formal letter. Great!

Hope you are all keeping well. Please stay safe and we hope you enjoy another lockdown weekend.
