

Writing

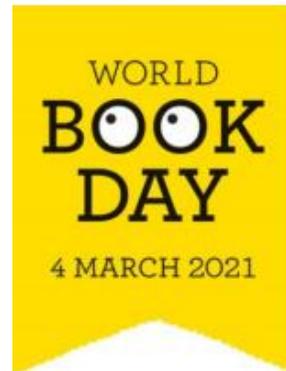

- Write an alternative ending to your favourite story.
- Write a character description of your favourite book character.
- Become an author and create your own book.
- Write a book review.
- Write a letter to your favourite author telling them what you like the most about their books or why it is your favourite book.
- Turn part of a story into a comic strip.
- If you were to have a sleepover with a book character, who would you choose and why?

Reading

- Create questions on the book you have read.
- Summarise the book you have read.
- Log into Lexia.
- Listen to an audio book.
- Watch authors reading a book to you on the website page.
- Record your own audio book.

Computing

- Design a social media page for a character from a book which has some updates from the character e.g. a Tweet or a Facebook status or an Instagram post.
- Write a blog for one of the characters based on something that has happened to them in a story.
- Look at the computing ideas document on the school website.

History

- Find out about the author of the book and their life – you could create a timeline for them or write a biography about them.
- Find out about the history of books and the first books to be written/ published in England.

Art/ D&T

- Draw a sketch of what your favourite character looks like.
- Design a new front cover for your favourite book.
- Design a bedroom for your character based on their personality – you could put this in a shoe box. Think about what is on the walls, the colour scheme, etc.
- Design a new outfit for your book character to wear.

Additional Activities

- Design/build a reading corner/ den somewhere in your home.
- Create the best 'reading snack plate' to enjoy whilst reading your favourite book.
- Dress up as your favourite character from a book.
- Organise your book shelf at home by sorting your books from A-Z.
- Rate your books at home out of 10 and order them from most to least favourite.
- Design the perfect day out for a book character from the moment they wake up to going to bed again at night time.